

MISS ALEXANDER TO BE A BRIDE

To Be Wedded to a Son of Nelson Aldrich on December 7

Miss Harriet Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, will be married to Winthrop Williams Aldrich, son of the late Senator and Mr. Nelson W. Aldrich, in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, at 3:30 o'clock, December 7. The ceremony will be performed by the bride's uncle, the Rev. Dr. John H. Jowett, and a reception will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander. Miss Alexander's bridesmaids will be her sisters, Miss Janet Alexander and Miss Mary Crocker Alexander.

Miss Eva Mall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mall, will be married to David Chester Noyes, of Boston, at 4 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, November 16, in Grace Church, Broadway, and St. Paul's Church, Hudson st., between 8th and 9th sts., Hoboken, New Jersey, Sunday, November 5, at 2:30 p. m.

Miss Gertrude Mall will be her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Jay Schieffelin, Miss Margaret Schieffelin, Miss Gladys Fries, Miss Katherine Lamont and Miss Margaret Payne Luce, all of New York, and Miss Helen Graydon, of Cincinnati.

Miss Perry Knapp, of 68 East Fifty-second Street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Knapp, to Mortimer Bliss Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lane, of 48 East Fifty-second Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Colon, of this city, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Clara Clark Colon, to Lester Sterling Pettit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pettit, also of New York.

Miss Louise Gertrude Piel, daughter of Mrs. M. Piel, of 245 West Seventy-second Street, was married to Edwin Lange, son of the bride's mother, at 8 o'clock, Sunday, November 5, in the home of the bride's mother, Miss Lange, who is United States Vice-Consul at Bursa, Turkey, in a Harvard graduate and the son of the late Dr. Conrad Lange and a nephew of Dr. Frederick Lange.

Miss Piel was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes Piel. The bridesmaids were Miss Mathilda Lange, of New York, and Miss Edith Tompkins, of Cambridge, Mass. Miss Clara Wiedemann, of Buffalo, and Miss Marguerite Schell, of Buffalo, were bridesmaids. Miss Piel's best man was William Murphy, of Wilmington, Del.

On Saturday afternoon, November 18, Miss Piel will give a recital in the Astor Hall for the benefit of the Astor Day Nursery.

The ceremony was a well equipped affair, with a large playground and a room for the children. The children were entertained by a variety of games and exercises. The ceremony was a success and the children were very happy.

Also some rarities of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries, including First Editions and books illustrated by the master engravers.

On Public Exhibition from November 16 to the Sale on the Afternoon and Evening of November 21 and the Afternoon of November 22.

Catalogues free to intending buyers.

The Anderson Galleries
Madison Ave. at Fortieth Street
NEW YORK

EUGENISTS UPSET BY PRIZE CHILD

Daughter of Living Skeleton and Bearded Lady
Best at 69th's Bazaar

All the pet theories of the eugenists apparently had the props knocked from under them yesterday at the benefit bazaar in the 69th Regiment Armory, at Twenty-fifth Street and Lexington Avenue, when Adelaide Atherton was awarded the prize as the best developed child, mentally and physically, in the three-year-old class.

Luckily little Miss Atherton resembles neither her father nor her mother. The former, Eddie Atherton, claims the distinction of having had his picture in oil appear on more side show banners than any other living skeleton in the country, while his wife "doubles" as the bearded lady and a snake charmer. The memories of the times she was bounced on father's knee, painful though they may be, are as dear to Adelaide as the fun she had, as a grasping child, playing with mother's whiskers.

Another prize winner who is fond of whiskers was Evelyn Horlick Cox, two-year-old granddaughter of "Captain Jack" Crawford, the scout poet, who has flowing white locks and a mustache and goes to a Buffalo Bill. "Captain Jack" acted as one of the judges of the contest and recited some of his original poems. The other winners were: Eleanor Odlin, one and a half years old, of 3100 Broadway, who recited a number of poems; Alya Wentzell, four years old, of 293 Lenox Avenue; Alice Tappan, five years old, and Wanda de Gozawa, six-year-old daughter of the Marquise de Gozawa. The marquis sang a group of lullabies in her native Polish.

The prizes were presented by Winifred Sackville Stoner, Jr., who has been called by many educators in the country the best developed child.

An old-fashioned circus was given in the armory in the evening, the principal roles being taken by William Collier, Marie Dressier, Robert Warwick, C. Aubrey Smith, King Baggott and Major Doyle. The "greatest show on earth" was managed by the Baroness Dorothy Van Raven.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY
One hundred and thirty anniversary celebration of the Old John Street Methodist Episcopal Church.
Italian Bazaar, Grand Central Palace.
Lecture by Theodore Marburg on "Biblical Archaeology," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by S. S. Matsum on "A New Heaven," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. Stephen Wise on "How I Ought to Vote," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. F. Adler on "After the War," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. A. D. Hall on "The Science of Being and of Eternity," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. W. H. Miller on "The Science of Being and of Eternity," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. W. H. Miller on "The Science of Being and of Eternity," 8:30 p. m.

HAZEL-COLLINS
[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Stamford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Miss Anna Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, of Sound Avenue, Shippan, was married to-night to Clarence Hazel, of Cheswold, Del., by the Rev. Dr. Wallace H. Finch, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ceremony, in Shippan Chapel, was witnessed by 200 relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Miss Sara Colcord, of Brooklyn, was maid of honor. Mr. Hazel's best man was William Murphy, of Wilmington, Del.

STRONG-BARLOW
Miss Kate Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow, of North Plainfield, N. J., and Dudley S. Strong, son of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Strong, of Plainfield, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. H. St. G. Burdell, of Holy Cross Church. Miss Mary Barlow was maid of honor. Miss Dorothy Wisner, of New York, bridesmaid, and Carl L. Strong, brother of the bridegroom, the best man.

HED BEEN "SKINNED," TOO
A humane society had secured a show window and filled it with attractive pictures of wild animals in their native haunts, says "The Pall Mall Gazette." A placard in the middle of the exhibit read: "We were skinned to provide women with fashionable furs."

A man paused before the window, and his harassed expression for a moment gave place to one of sympathy. "I know just how you feel, old tops," he muttered. "So was I."

BRITAIN BLOCKED PEACE PROPOSAL

"Chicago Daily News"
Says Sabin's Story Was
True When He Told It

Chicago, Nov. 4.—"The Daily News" to-day prints the following:
"The inside story of the situation which led up to the famous peace interview given out a month ago by Charles H. Sabin, president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, came out to-day for the first time in connection with Mr. Sabin's visit to Chicago."

"Mr. Sabin had received information from an unimpeachable source that a message was on the way to President Wilson from the German government asking him to use his good offices to bring about an early peace," said "The Daily News" informant. "Certain neutral diplomats had actually prepared to start for America as the bearers of the German government's proposals. Mr. Sabin never intimated in any way that Ambassador Gerard was the bearer of the Kaiser's message. The coincidence of Mr. Gerard being on his way to the United States at the time led to the deduction printed in some of the newspapers that Mr. Gerard was bringing the message to which Mr. Sabin referred."

"However, at about the same time that Mr. Sabin received this news from Germany, the alert intelligence department of the British government had learned the same facts. Great Britain lost no time in nipping the German peace movement in the bud. It will be remembered that Lloyd George immediately came out with an emphatic statement in an interview, saying that Great Britain would resist any attempt on the part of any neutral government to institute a peace movement at that time. A few days later Premier Asquith made a statement in the House of Commons that 'this war cannot be allowed to end in some patched up, precarious and dishonoring compromise masquerading under the name of peace.'"

"These emphatic statements caused the German government to abandon its efforts at arriving at a peace through the good offices of the United States. The Lloyd George and Asquith statements were so evidently intended to head off the movement which was being initiated that it seemed useless to go forward with it. The result was that Mr. Sabin was placed in the unfortunate position of having given out a warning on a most important subject, for which the occasion was suddenly removed."

HIS WIFE WASN'T CELEBRATING
Old Uncle Jacob was walking ecstatically up and down the village street, dressed in his Sunday suit, says "The Pall Mall Gazette."

"Hello, Uncle Jacob," cried one of his neighbors, "are you having a holiday?"
"Yes, I am," replied Uncle Jacob, proudly, "I'm celebrating my golden wedding."

"Then why isn't your wife celebrating it with you?" said the man.
"She ain't got aught to do with it," replied Uncle Jacob, indignantly.

FLOWER SHOW HELD AT TUXEDO CLUB

Through Admirers Blooms and Sees Prizes Awarded

Tuxedo Park, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The annual flower show given by the park residents was held this week end in the Tuxedo Club house ballroom. There was an excellent display of chrysanthemums, orchids, violets, roses and carnations. In addition to the numerous prizes, silver cups were offered by seed men of New York. Mrs. A. S. Garhart won a special cup for the best flowering plant. Mrs. J. M. Mitchell won another.

H. M. Tilford captured the Heather Home Trophy for the best selection of twenty varieties of chrysanthemums and G. G. Mason the bronze medal for the largest chrysanthemum bloom in the show. H. M. Tilford also won first prize for the best group of miscellaneous plants arranged for effect. In addition, there were large exhibitions of vegetables, fruits and farm products. There was keen competition for the table decoration prize. The judges in this class were Mrs. Alfred Storer, Mrs. J. L. Blair, Mrs. David Wagstaff, Mr. Ambrose Monell and Mrs. Theodore Frothingham.

First prize was awarded to Mrs. Samuel Spencer's garden; H. M. Tilford, second; and J. Insley Blair, third. Mrs. Gardiner Gayley has loaned the small Seton cottage for the autumn and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pooler have moved into the Garland house. Among others who are here for Sunday are Mrs. Peter A. Jay, Miss Gertrude Campbell, Mrs. Rosewell Steel, Lindsay Russell, William G. Hibb, Philip Kip Rhineland, the Rev. Howard Huntington, E. M. Padelford, James R. Townsend, Mrs. A. C. Brooks, Mrs. A. N. Anderson, Mrs. A. Hendricks and H. G. Pell.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY
One hundred and thirty anniversary celebration of the Old John Street Methodist Episcopal Church.
Italian Bazaar, Grand Central Palace.
Lecture by Theodore Marburg on "Biblical Archaeology," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by S. S. Matsum on "A New Heaven," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. Stephen Wise on "How I Ought to Vote," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. F. Adler on "After the War," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. A. D. Hall on "The Science of Being and of Eternity," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. W. H. Miller on "The Science of Being and of Eternity," 8:30 p. m.
Lecture by Dr. W. H. Miller on "The Science of Being and of Eternity," 8:30 p. m.

HAZEL-COLLINS
[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Stamford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Miss Anna Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, of Sound Avenue, Shippan, was married to-night to Clarence Hazel, of Cheswold, Del., by the Rev. Dr. Wallace H. Finch, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ceremony, in Shippan Chapel, was witnessed by 200 relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Miss Sara Colcord, of Brooklyn, was maid of honor. Mr. Hazel's best man was William Murphy, of Wilmington, Del.

STRONG-BARLOW
Miss Kate Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow, of North Plainfield, N. J., and Dudley S. Strong, son of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Strong, of Plainfield, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. H. St. G. Burdell, of Holy Cross Church. Miss Mary Barlow was maid of honor. Miss Dorothy Wisner, of New York, bridesmaid, and Carl L. Strong, brother of the bridegroom, the best man.

HED BEEN "SKINNED," TOO
A humane society had secured a show window and filled it with attractive pictures of wild animals in their native haunts, says "The Pall Mall Gazette." A placard in the middle of the exhibit read: "We were skinned to provide women with fashionable furs."

A man paused before the window, and his harassed expression for a moment gave place to one of sympathy. "I know just how you feel, old tops," he muttered. "So was I."

On Public Exhibition from November 16 to the Sale on the Afternoon and Evening of November 21 and the Afternoon of November 22.

Catalogues free to intending buyers.

The Anderson Galleries
Madison Ave. at Fortieth Street
NEW YORK

HOBOKEN "DOPE" MARKET IN PERIL

Three Drug Stores Said to Supply New York
Fiends

Hoboken's "dope" market, which has been under investigation by the police of that city and Federal inspectors, may be broken up within the next few days. Although the narcotic sales registers of only three drug stores in the city have been examined, such an amazing array of evidence, showing enormous sales of morphine, cocaine and heroin has been disclosed that James McCarthy, Assistant Prosecutor, said yesterday he could proceed against the offenders without further proof that the law had been violated. He said warrants might be issued early this week for several men.

Dr. J. F. Stack, Health Commissioner of Hoboken, declared that the sales list in the three pharmacies furnished conclusive proof that anybody could buy all the "dope" he wanted in Hoboken. The Health Commissioner said only a small fraction of the drugs were bought for home consumption. He believed most of it was procured by speculators in human misery for the New York market, where the narcotic squad of the Police Department has caused so much trouble for "dope peddlers" that it has been almost impossible for them to operate for any length of time without being caught and sent to jail. Dr. Stack and Detective Sergeant Jeremiah Green, who made the investigation, think that of late New York "dope fiends" have been feeding on Hoboken.

The extent of the Hoboken traffic in narcotics may be judged by the fact that Detective Green found in one drug store a prescription written by a prominent physician of the city for one ounce of morphine. The druggist refused to sell that amount, cutting it down to one drachm. There are eight drachms in an ounce and sixty grains in a drachm. When a physician finds it necessary to administer morphine he injects from one-eighth to one-fourth of a grain.

This prescription was dated October 31 and was presented on that day by a man giving the name of George C. Leek, 228 East Thirty-sixth Street, New York City. No such person was found at that address when Federal Inspector H. T. Wouters tried to trace the buyer on the following day. The physician who had written the prescription heard that an investigation was made and hurried on November 1 to the drug store, where he changed his order to one drachm. Both prescriptions were displayed to a Tribune reporter yesterday by the druggist.

HOW HOLLAND PREPARED
Holland having seen the fate of Belgium in the great war, began to mend her casings, military ways, says "World's Work."

One of her early acts, however, might cause a twinkle in the eyes of any one in the least familiar with German knowledge of invaded territory. In one Dutch, in the innocence of their military hearts, pulled down all cross roads guideposts in the strategic part of the country. Contemplate the dilemma and discomfiture of a German army in darkness. Holland with no signposts to guide it!

PRESENT
A NUMBER OF NEW MODELS

Tailored Dresses
IN CLOTH AND VELVET
Coat Dresses
Tailored Suits
Skating and Pastime Suits
AS WELL AS
Coats and Wraps
FOR
AFTERNOON AND EVENING
ALSO A NUMBER OF NEW MODEL
Hats
UNUSUALLY SMART
YOUTHFUL AND DIFFERENT

FURS have never been taken up with quite the enthusiasm of the present season. A wide choice is afforded in Ermine, Kolinsky, Hudson Bay Sable, Skunk and Hudson Seal; in Capes, Collars, Collar-ettes and Muffs, in styles to conform with present demands.

The Foxes are unusually fashionable and prominent. Scarfs and Muffs of Silver, Cross, Natural Blue and various colors are shown in large variety.

Style Pamphlet on Request.

A. Jaekel & Co.
Furriers
384 Fifth Avenue
Telephone, Greeley—2044.
Between 35th and 36th Sts.

DE BRETEUIL, FRIEND OF KING EDWARD, DIES

French Marquis's Wife Was Miss
Garner of New York

Paris, Nov. 4.—The Marquis Henri Charles de Breteuil, a famous personage in Parisian society and intimate friend of the late King Edward of England, is dead.

The Marquis de Breteuil married Miss Garner, of New York, about twenty-five years ago. He enjoyed the friendship of many members of the royal family of England and frequently entertained them in France. He served with distinction in the Franco-Prussian War of 1870, was a Knight of the Legion of Honor and twice was a member of the Chamber of Deputies.

SISTER MARY CHRISTINA
Sister Mary Christina, forty-nine years old, of Mount St. Mary College, North Plainfield, N. J., died there yesterday. She formerly lived in Philadelphia.

DIED
Brooks, Louise A. Reid, Florence L. Cuntz, William.

BROOKS.—At the Hotel Buckingham on November 4, 1916, Louise A. widow of Henry S. Brooks, in the 79th year of her age. Funeral private.

CUNTZ.—On Thursday, November 2, 1916, William Cooper Cuntz, of New Garden, Long Island, in the 46th year of his age. Funeral services at St. Paul's Church, Hudson st., between 8th and 9th sts., Hoboken, New Jersey, Sunday, November 5, at 2:30 p. m.

REID.—On November 4, 1916, at her residence, New Canaan, Conn., after a brief illness, Florence Lockwood Reid, beloved wife of William H. Reid. Notice of funeral hereafter.

CEMETERIES.
THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY.
2123 St. By Harlem Train and by Trolleys.
Lots of small size for sale.
Office 28 East 34th St., N. Y.

BRITAIN BLOCKED PEACE PROPOSAL

"Chicago Daily News"
Says Sabin's Story Was
True When He Told It

Chicago, Nov. 4.—"The Daily News" to-day prints the following:
"The inside story of the situation which led up to the famous peace interview given out a month ago by Charles H. Sabin, president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, came out to-day for the first time in connection with Mr. Sabin's visit to Chicago."

"Mr. Sabin had received information from an unimpeachable source that a message was on the way to President Wilson from the German government asking him to use his good offices to bring about an early peace," said "The Daily News" informant. "Certain neutral diplomats had actually prepared to start for America as the bearers of the German government's proposals. Mr. Sabin never intimated in any way that Ambassador Gerard was the bearer of the Kaiser's message. The coincidence of Mr. Gerard being on his way to the United States at the time led to the deduction printed in some of the newspapers that Mr. Gerard was bringing the message to which Mr. Sabin referred."

"However, at about the same time that Mr. Sabin received this news from Germany, the alert intelligence department of the British government had learned the same facts. Great Britain lost no time in nipping the German peace movement in the bud. It will be remembered that Lloyd George immediately came out with an emphatic statement in an interview, saying that Great Britain would resist any attempt on the part of any neutral government to institute a peace movement at that time. A few days later Premier Asquith made a statement in the House of Commons that 'this war cannot be allowed to end in some patched up, precarious and dishonoring compromise masquerading under the name of peace.'"

"These emphatic statements caused the German government to abandon its efforts at arriving at a peace through the good offices of the United States. The Lloyd George and Asquith statements were so evidently intended to head off the movement which was being initiated that it seemed useless to go forward with it. The result was that Mr. Sabin was placed in the unfortunate position of having given out a warning on a most important subject, for which the occasion was suddenly removed."

HIS WIFE WASN'T CELEBRATING
Old Uncle Jacob was walking ecstatically up and down the village street, dressed in his Sunday suit, says "The Pall Mall Gazette."

"Hello, Uncle Jacob," cried one of his neighbors, "are you having a holiday?"
"Yes, I am," replied Uncle Jacob, proudly, "I'm celebrating my golden wedding."

"Then why isn't your wife celebrating it with you?" said the man.
"She ain't got aught to do with it," replied Uncle Jacob, indignantly.

On Public Exhibition from November 16 to the Sale on the Afternoon and Evening of November 21 and the Afternoon of November 22.

Catalogues free to intending buyers.

The Anderson Galleries
Madison Ave. at Fortieth Street
NEW YORK

HAZEL-COLLINS
[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Stamford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Miss Anna Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, of Sound Avenue, Shippan, was married to-night to Clarence Hazel, of Cheswold, Del., by the Rev. Dr. Wallace H. Finch, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ceremony, in Shippan Chapel, was witnessed by 200 relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Miss Sara Colcord, of Brooklyn, was maid of honor. Mr. Hazel's best man was William Murphy, of Wilmington, Del.

STRONG-BARLOW
Miss Kate Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow, of North Plainfield, N. J., and Dudley S. Strong, son of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Strong, of Plainfield, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. H. St. G. Burdell, of Holy Cross Church. Miss Mary Barlow was maid of honor. Miss Dorothy Wisner, of New York, bridesmaid, and Carl L. Strong, brother of the bridegroom, the best man.

HED BEEN "SKINNED," TOO
A humane society had secured a show window and filled it with attractive pictures of wild animals in their native haunts, says "The Pall Mall Gazette." A placard in the middle of the exhibit read: "We were skinned to provide women with fashionable furs."

A man paused before the window, and his harassed expression for a moment gave place to one of sympathy. "I know just how you feel, old tops," he muttered. "So was I."

DE BRETEUIL, FRIEND OF KING EDWARD, DIES

French Marquis's Wife Was Miss
Garner of New York

Paris, Nov. 4.—The Marquis Henri Charles de Breteuil, a famous personage in Parisian society and intimate friend of the late King Edward of England, is dead.

The Marquis de Breteuil married Miss Garner, of New York, about twenty-five years ago. He enjoyed the friendship of many members of the royal family of England and frequently entertained them in France. He served with distinction in the Franco-Prussian War of 1870, was a Knight of the Legion of Honor and twice was a member of the Chamber of Deputies.

SISTER MARY CHRISTINA
Sister Mary Christina, forty-nine years old, of Mount St. Mary College, North Plainfield, N. J., died there yesterday. She formerly lived in Philadelphia.

DIED
Brooks, Louise A. Reid, Florence L. Cuntz, William.

BROOKS.—At the Hotel Buckingham on November 4, 1916, Louise A. widow of Henry S. Brooks, in the 79th year of her age. Funeral private.

CUNTZ.—On Thursday, November 2, 1916, William Cooper Cuntz, of New Garden, Long Island, in the 46th year of his age. Funeral services at St. Paul's Church, Hudson st., between 8th and 9th sts., Hoboken, New Jersey, Sunday, November 5, at 2:30 p. m.

REID.—On November 4, 1916, at her residence, New Canaan, Conn., after a brief illness, Florence Lockwood Reid, beloved wife of William H. Reid. Notice of funeral hereafter.

CEMETERIES.
THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY.
2123 St. By Harlem Train and by Trolleys.
Lots of small size for sale.
Office 28 East 34th St., N. Y.

HAZEL-COLLINS
[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Stamford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Miss Anna Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, of Sound Avenue, Shippan, was married to-night to Clarence Hazel, of Cheswold, Del., by the Rev. Dr. Wallace H. Finch, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ceremony, in Shippan Chapel, was witnessed by 200 relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Miss Sara Colcord, of Brooklyn, was maid of honor. Mr. Hazel's best man was William Murphy, of Wilmington, Del.

STRONG-BARLOW
Miss Kate Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow, of North Plainfield, N. J., and Dudley S. Strong, son of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Strong, of Plainfield, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. H. St. G. Burdell, of Holy Cross Church. Miss Mary Barlow was maid of honor. Miss Dorothy Wisner, of New York, bridesmaid, and Carl L. Strong, brother of the bridegroom, the best man.

HED BEEN "SKINNED," TOO
A humane society had secured a show window and filled it with attractive pictures of wild animals in their native haunts, says "The Pall Mall Gazette." A placard in the middle of the exhibit read: "We were skinned to provide women with fashionable furs."

A man paused before the window, and his harassed expression for a moment gave place to one of sympathy. "I know just how you feel, old tops," he muttered. "So was I."

On Public Exhibition from November 16 to the Sale on the Afternoon and Evening of November 21 and the Afternoon of November 22.

Catalogues free to intending buyers.

The Anderson Galleries
Madison Ave. at Fortieth Street
NEW YORK

HAZEL-COLLINS
[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Stamford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Miss Anna Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, of Sound Avenue, Shippan, was married to-night to Clarence Hazel, of Cheswold, Del., by the Rev. Dr. Wallace H. Finch, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ceremony, in Shippan Chapel, was witnessed by 200 relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Miss Sara Colcord, of Brooklyn, was maid of honor. Mr. Hazel's best man was William Murphy, of Wilmington, Del.

STRONG-BARLOW
Miss Kate Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow, of North Plainfield, N. J., and Dudley S. Strong, son of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Strong, of Plainfield, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. H. St. G. Burdell, of Holy Cross Church. Miss Mary Barlow was maid of honor. Miss Dorothy Wisner, of New York, bridesmaid, and Carl L. Strong, brother of the bridegroom, the best man.

HED BEEN "SKINNED," TOO
A humane society had secured a show window and filled it with attractive pictures of wild animals in their native haunts, says "The Pall Mall Gazette." A placard in the middle of the exhibit read: "We were skinned to provide women with fashionable furs."

A man paused before the window, and his harassed expression for a moment gave place to one of sympathy. "I know just how you feel, old tops," he muttered. "So was I."